"Devereux is more than a program or a particular method of fusing professional disciplines. The Devereux Plan is a philosophy, an attitude and, above all, a way of life."

President and Director's Message

EDWARD L. FRENCH, Ph.D.
President and Director

To the Texas Graduating Class of 1969:

The late poet laureate of England, John Masefield, has written, "The skyline is a promise, not a bound."

As you leave Devereux at this time of graduation, I trust that you will consider these words well. These are days of planning, planning for your future, for further education, for the seeking of career opportunities, for pursuing that which you will choose as your life work.

We at Devereux have endeavored to provide a foundation for you. The lessons that you have mastered, and the requirements that you have fulfilled are but a preparation for tomorrow. The challenge is to use the foundation well - as a basis for growth, for fulfillment, for self realization.

I trust that your horizons will be brightened with promise and your lives bounded but by success and happiness.

Very sincerely yours,

To the 1969 Texas Student Body:

The success of our Texas school, impressive in its development over the past ten years, is derived from the individual success of each of you. I wish to commend you, and the persons who guide you, for your contribution toward building a Devereux program in which we may all take pride.

Sincerely,

John M. Barclay

We, the staff of the 1969 Viking, are presenting this annual to you, the students and the staff of Devereux, as a collection of memories of the past year. We hope that, for you, this collection will always be a warm and satisfying memento of our school life.

Also, we would like to thank all persons that helped to make this publication Devereux's best ever. Thanks especially to Mr. Medina for his never ending contributions and experienced guidance that aided us immensely.

As Editor-in-Chief, I am proud of this book and hope that you too, are proud when you display it.

Simulation: War

The War Simulation Activity was an accredited academic course titled "Advanced Social Studies - Special Problem: War Simulation." Its purpose was not to glorify war nor to contribute the emotion of warfare, but to analyze the socio-economic factors of international hostilities and determine the contributory events. Four nations were created, each having different material resources in terms of lumber, food, and minerals.

Production and Construction Allowances were defined so that each nation could develop only as their natural resources allowed. Thus CIREA (Agrarian) developed land forces while SEALAND and KATANA (Mineral and Lumber) developed sea forces. TELCONTAR, Class 2 for all resources, diversified. Trade was easily established between KATANA and SEALAND while CIREA and TELCONTAR could not due to their incompatible economic needs. TELCONTAR became the most warlike.

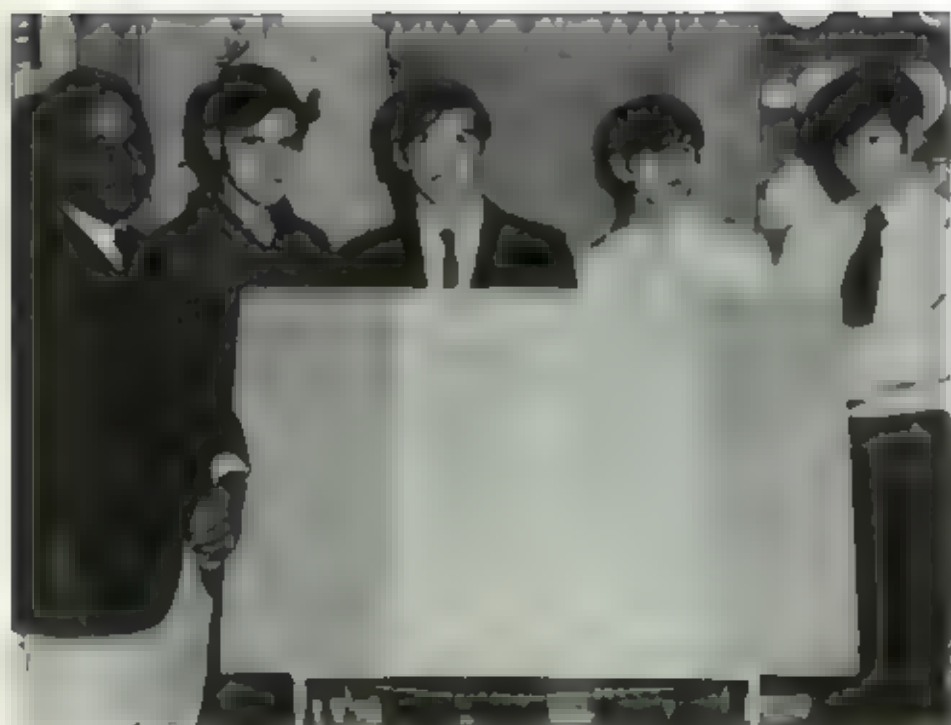

The results clearly showed the concatenation of war. It was decided that the causative factors of war are: Surplus of weapons and population, eco differences, apparent national dominance over another, ethno-cultural differences. Wars are NOT fought for economic gain. Historical research tended to support our conclusions.

3rd Annual Car Road-e-o

The car Road-e-o was held on October 1, 1968. It was an outstanding contest and all participants had high scores. The top three boys were, Tom Fossing with a score of 255 out of a possible 300, Bill Holtorf with 255 and Mark Cohn with 250. The top three girls were Garnis Armbruster with 240, Kathy Carmichael with 230, and Cindi Booth with 215. All the participants were competing against a policeman who went through the course at the same time as the students did and had a score of 250. The event was judged by Captain Rosenquest, Lt. Futch and Sgt. Slaughter of the Victoria Police Department.

Spring Formal 1968

On May 9, 1968, Devereux's Student and Recreation Councils sponsored their annual Spring Formal at the Holiday Inn of Victoria. After a buffet dinner, both staff and students were entertained by a local dance band. The event closed with an informal breakfast in the dining room of the Inn.

Academic Awards Banquet,

June 7, 1968

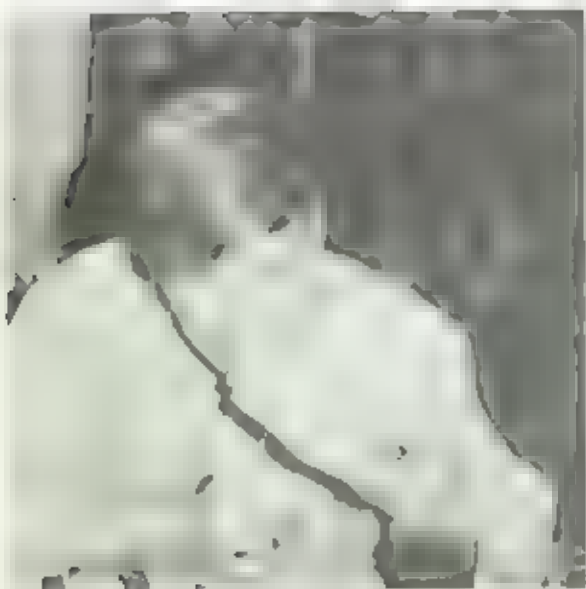

The 1967-1968 academic year ended on a weekend in June with Senior Graduation. The day before graduation, an Awards Banquet began the memorable weekend. An elaborate dinner was served, after which Mr. Duenow, master of ceremonies, introduced the respective area supervisors who presented the awards. The highlight of the banquet occurred when Roland Davis and Joan Knowles received awards for the "Most Outstanding Student" during the 1967-1968 school year. (Right)

1969 Yearbook Seminar

On September 2, 1969, four members of the Viking staff traveled to Houston, Texas to attend Taylor Publishing Company's Annual Yearbook Clinic. After the seminar they had time to take a few pictures around the grounds of the University of Houston campus which is where the seminar was held. The trip was ended with a meal which the travelers enjoyed thoroughly. L to R: Chuck Musman, Garnis Armbruster, Diane Geiger, Stephen Deibel.

Field Day — Staff vs. Students

July 4, 1968

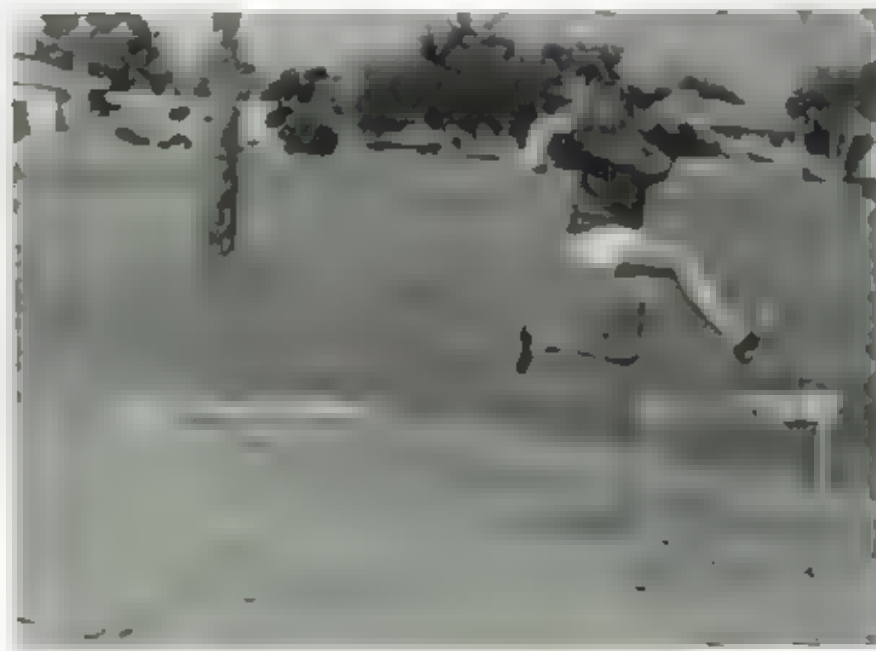

The wet blanket of defeat was nailed over the staff, despite the invasion of several robust summer counselors. The opposing students thwarted the staff's attempt by a final score of 202 1/2 to 182 1/2.

With comments by Stephen Rindal

Roland Davis' lithe, strong legs carried him to a handsome victory in the male 100 yard dash.

Another nimble staff member, Mrs. Hoff, won brilliantly the ladies' 120 yard hurdles.

The team of Dale Metcoff (above), Tom Fossing, Nole Davis and Bill Holtorf, the epitome of the school's agility, won the 440 yard relay.

For the staff, Mrs. Witzig and Miss Sassin won the female wheelbarrow race.

The female three-legged race conceded triumph to Sharon Rice and Paula Graham.

Danny Weir, who must have been wearing springs on his shoes, easily won after clearing a high jump of 5' 4".

The ludicrous bag race was captured by Mr. Perryman (staff) in the male area.

The tag-of-war event included "Arnie" Stafford and "Baby" King who instigated boundless mirth by pulling Brad Nichol and Juan Vivot through the mud pit.

Tennis wasn't even a contest for the females who possessed Kathe Parke.

Then all proceeded to the dining hall where everyone was regaled with a hearty luncheon of hamburgers and hot dogs.

Mr. King was there to lead the staff's team in the male softball game also consisting of Messrs. Pollard, Rosas, Gomez, Gerrard, Thorsen, Ellis, Hoff, Perez, and Fernin to a win over the students who embraced Al Kaplan, Mall Espinosa, Grumbacher, Dyer, Wanska, Mathias, Seward, Herron, Munhall, Foster, and Davis.

The aquatic performances marked the end of the sportive holidays. The 40 meter race engendered a tie between Tom Varnell and Mr. Perryman.

The first female diving event was won with certainty by Mary Campbell.

Tim O'Connor provided the humor by mesmerizing the onlookers with his inordinately clever, screwball dives.

Taking into consideration the students' skill heterogeneously combined with their sheer numbers, triumph was a foregone conclusion. Consequently the students snatched the scepter from the hands of the staff who had held it previously for two consecutive years.

EDUCATION

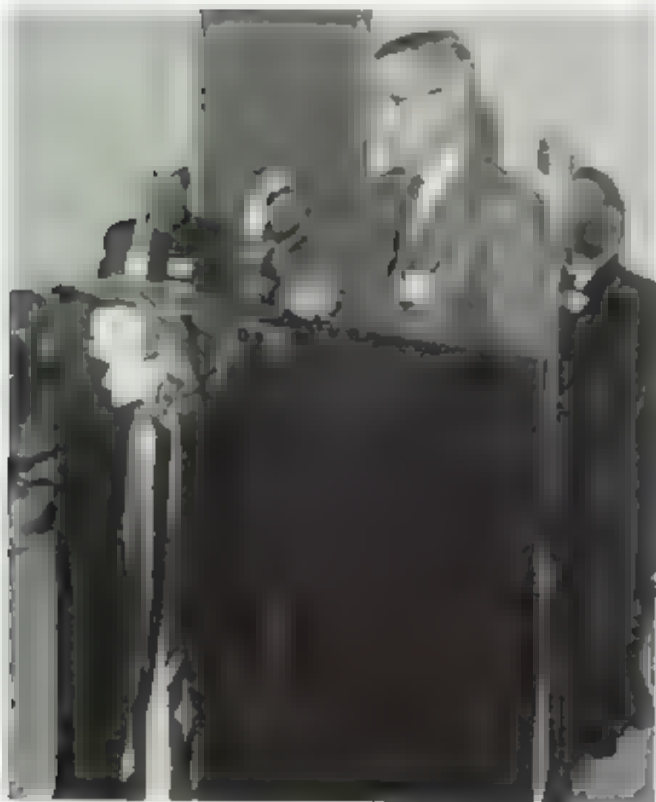

On Saturday, October 12, 1968 part of a dream came true when over 500 persons gathered to dedicate Devereux's new three-building complex located west of Victoria. The complex is the first phase of a four-phase program to be completed in 1974. After a dinner at Victoria Country Club the ceremonies moved to the new site. Dr. George Constant served as moderator for the program. Welcoming remarks were delivered by Richard Danko, Director of the Texas schools. Guest speaker was George S. Trimble Jr., Deputy Director of the National Aeronautic and Space Administration. Trimble highlighted his dedicatory address with a briefing on the current Apollo space flight. Dr. Edward French, President and Director of the Foundation marked the occasion as "a very significant day in the history of Devereux..." Also speaking briefly at the ceremony was Dr. John Kinross-Wright, Commissioner of the Texas Department of Mental Health. The Rev. Richard Toal gave the invocation and Rev. G. N. McAllister gave the benediction. Vocal numbers were presented by the Victorian College Chorale.
